

use of cellular phones in-flight would pose a danger and a hazard; use by terrorists coordinating an attack and also by a group of unruly or drunk passengers. also, would the use of phones by 200 people in a contained area affect navigational equipment?